"Young Life leaders are able to connect in an unthreatening and friendly way, with no strings attached...they merge in with the students seamlessly...and are able to have the most profound impact on some of them."

Connecting together

Partners in connecting with today's young people

YOUNG LIFE is passionate about young people.

For more than 30 years, our volunteer leaders have dedicated themselves to positively impacting the lives of thousands of young Australians.

Young Life provides weekly activities that provide a safe environment to have fun and explore the Christian faith. Our seasonal adventure camps give young people the best week of their lives as they try new things, make new friends and hear about how much God loves them. Small groups provide opportunity to build stronger friendships and explore issues of life and faith in greater depth.

While each of these activities is an important part of the Young Life mix, in reality, it all begins in one place - school.

Each week, Young Life leaders choose to leave the comfort of their own world and return to school just to be with young people. They might hang out with them at lunch, teach Scripture or run a sport day. Whatever the activity, the aim is to connect with young people on a regular basis and build a long-term relationship based on trust and respect.

The relationships formed through this simple act of meeting young people in their own environment build the foundation for all other Young Life programs.

"It has always been comforting to know that someone older and wiser is there, even at one in the morning if I'm upset, to help me through difficult times." BETH, YEAR 12, NSW

Young Life Australia currently reaches an estimated 4,000 students per year through regular school contact. Our dream is to double that number by 2007.

This will only happen through the valued partnership of ordinary Australians who want the best for our young people. Together, we will help our staff and leaders expand their work to new high schools and new communities.

We invite you to join us as a partner in Connecting Together, a monthly giving program that supports the work of our staff and volunteers and allows them to build their programs to reach more young people.

In return, we look forward to engaging you in our journey:

- Monthly email reports about how your gift is making a difference
- Special camp reports about changed lives
- Quarterly newsletters
- Invitations to special events
- An opportunity to experience camp through our Adult Guest Program
- One easy end-of-financial year receipt.

I would love to partner in Connecting Together with Young Life Australia
